When the case was called counsel for defense asked for a postponement til afternom on account of a sudden almoss of ex-Senator George F. Edminds. The delay was granted. At 3 relock the testimony began. Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson, Mr. Harrison, of Wushington, Mr. Hobs Smith, of Atlanta, and Messis, M. E. Harris and Erwin appeared for the respondents. Senator A. O. Gacon—and others represented the plaintiffs.

THE EVIDENCE.

A. O. Bacon and others represented the plaintiffs.

THE EVIDENCE.

Evidence was offered going to show that the Southern had gained control of the Georgia Southern and Florida, which was admitted without objection. This closed the case for the plaintiffs the balance of the evidence having been given at a previous hearing.

Mr. Stetson introduced maps going to show that the roads alleged to be controlled by the Southern were not parallel or competing lines, hence the control of them was not in violation of the state constitution. Turiff sheets were also introduced with the idea of proving that since the Southern gained control of the roads in duestion, there had been no advance of rates but in fact they had been reduced.

Alt. Stetson announced that tomorrow testimony would be offered showing local conditions as they affect this case and the defense would close. He thought all his testimony would be in by noon.
